

Fiber Arts Necklace by Rita Lowinske

This hand-sewn fiber necklace is a mesmerizing piece of wearable art, crafted with utmost intricacy and care. It showcases a vibrant tapestry of natural elements and delicate embellishments, effortlessly combining elements of nature and the beauty of our beads.

The focal point of this necklace can be any beads glass, flower, leaves, crystals etc. meticulously hand-sewn onto the fiber base. You may use vibrant or soft colors to create a stunning unique visual necklace.

The entire composition of this necklace is woven and sewn together with fine fibers, creating an organic backdrop for the stunning centerpiece. Soft yet sturdy threads intertwine, forming an intricate network that links all the elements together.

This one-of-a-kind hand-sewn fiber necklace is a testament to your skill and creative vision. It echoes the beauty of our craft while adding a personal and eclectic touch.
